

JEALOUS WIFE'S SPY HAILED INTO COURT

Actress Resents Calls of Detective Seeking Art-Loving Husband.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—When the detective who she is sure is in the employ of a rich and beautiful woman paid a second uninvited call at her apartment, at 142 West Forty-fourth street, Miss Nance Gwyn, interpreter of Greek dances, actress, artist, sculptress, horsewoman, etc., felt there was nothing else to do but to have the man arrested. So she did so. Darling, her pocket edition Pomeranian, barking approval.

That is why the West Side police court yesterday was graced by a wisp of temperamental femininity in black velvet, her face shadowed by an enormous creation also of black, who indignantly demanded the full penalty of the law from Magistrate Herbert on John G. Keyser, a detective in the employ of a Philadelphia agency.

"On the night of January 5 I was entertaining a party of friends at dinner," she said. "We were just about to sit down when this man and another rang my bell and pushed his way into my apartments. He would not explain his action, but handed me a card showing he was a detective, saying 'I guess that will explain.' But it didn't explain, and I'm sure I don't know whom he was looking for."

"Then he came again today and tried to learn from the elevator boy who my callers were. So I had him arrested." Keyser said he had been employed by a Philadelphia woman, now in Europe, to watch her husband, a millionaire with a taste for music and art. He had found the millionaire often in Miss Gwyn's company, he said, and it was necessary for him to get into Miss Gwyn's flat to see if he was there.

The court could not see that Keyser had infringed any law and let him go, with a warning not to do it again, however. Miss Gwyn was very indignant. "I don't see how it can be called justice to allow a stranger to break into a girl's apartment," she said. "The man I suppose he was looking for wasn't here, anyway. I see all sorts of people in the pursuit of my art, and I never ask if they are married. What has that to do with it?"

"This woman who hires detectives to invade my home has been in Europe a year. If she's afraid I'll steal her husband why doesn't she come home and take care of him? I don't want him. He loves art for art's sake, and writes beautiful music for me to dance to. Our relations are perfectly proper."

LABOR INDIGNANT AT KIRBY ATTACK

Springfield Unions Aroused by Vicious Arraignment of Gompers by Employer.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Jan. 12.—Labor leaders here are angrily discussing today the speech made last night at the annual banquet of the Springfield Employers' Association by John P. Kirby, Jr., of Dayton, Ohio, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, in which Kirby viciously attacked the American Federation of Labor, its leaders, Gompers, Mitchell, and Morrison, and the National Civic Federation, which Kirby declared was "a annex" to the labor body. Kirby declared the labor leaders were "vampires of society, who work while the employers sleep."

In speaking of Gompers and Mitchell Kirby said: "Our judicial system, admired by the world, has been openly defied by these men. Their attitude is more dangerous to the welfare of the people and of the Government than the Haymarket anarchists."

TEASED INTO INSANITY.

KEOKUK, Iowa, Jan. 14.—Pretty twenty-year-old Lillie Nygren today was transferred from a municipal institution to the State institution for insane at Mt. Pleasant, the cause of her condition being a result of her friends' teasing because a young man who used to work next to her playfully hurried her.

OLEO MEN SENTENCED.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 14.—Jacob and Louis Wesoky, butter dealers, of this city, were sentenced in Federal court today to two and a half years in Leavenworth penitentiary, with a fine of $2,500, for violation of the laws governing the sale of oleomargarine.

LOCKJAW FROM WOUND.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 14.—Newton Lingle, a young man living at Oberlin, is dying of lockjaw. With a party of enthusiastic friends, Lingle began late December 31 to welcome the new year, using an ancient musket. The gun exploded, carrying away part of his hand.

Plans a New Trip

WRIGHT KRAMER.

WRIGHT KRAMER is planning another trip abroad in the early spring in company with Burton Holmes to collect data for a new series of lectures. The "Beautiful Way Around the World" series, now being delivered by Mr. Kramer at the Columbia on Sunday nights, is the result of such a trip abroad last year.

"Japan," declared Mr. Kramer, on his last visit here, "is still a land of wondrous beauty and by means of Mr. Holmes' pictures I hope to shed some light on that portion of the Orient."

TURKEY MAY SEIZE THESSALY AS HOSTAGE

Porte Announces She Will Not Permit Crete to Be Annexed to Greece.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 14.—The Turkish government today sent an ultimatum to the powers that if Crete, which is under Turkish suzerainty, carries out her intention of sending deputies to the Greek parliament, Turkey will seize Thessaly and hold it as a security for Turkish interests. Thessaly is the northernmost division of Greece. Ever since the abortive attempt of Crete to annex herself to Greece failed, through the intervention of the guardian powers, the island has been sitting up trouble and is still insisting on political union with Greece.

GENERAL MILLER SEEKS A DIVORCE

Pennsylvania Millionaire Charges Wife With Cruel Treatment.

FRANKLIN, Pa., Jan. 12.—Gen. Charles Miller filed a petition for divorce here this afternoon against his wife, Emma A. Miller, alleging cruel and barbarous treatment. They were married in 1896.

General Miller is the owner of a palatial home in Miller Park, the aristocratic residential section of Franklin. Mrs. Miller has spent only a few months in Franklin during the last two years, passing the remainder of her time in New York city and elsewhere.

She positively refuses to live in Franklin. General Miller, having all his business interests centered here, his church, and his Bible class, which is the largest in the world, and also his children, finds it impracticable to leave Franklin. Mrs. Miller was formerly the wife of A. D. Baker, a piano tuner of Meadville, whom she left to live in New York city. Mr. Baker divorced her for desertion in the courts of Crawford county at Meadville.

The subpoena is made returnable April 25.

"JOHN BARRETT" NOW ON ALL DIPLOMAS

New President of Esperantists Busy Signing Certificates for Graduates.

"Tial ke la eksamenistaro certigas al ni ke"—and some more. Signed—John Barrett, president.

This was written upon a piece of parchment which G. S. Bidwell, of the Bureau of Chemistry, received this morning.

It was the first diploma Mr. Barrett has signed since his election as president of the Esperanto Association of North America.

Along with several diplomas bearing his signature, Mr. Barrett sent a note to the local Esperanto headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce announcing the fact that he has been studying Esperanto diligently since his election, and that he can now read it with little difficulty.

He expects from this time on to devote his attention to mastering the correct pronunciation, so that he can deliver an address in the language when the International Esperanto Convention is held in Washington next August.

Mr. Bidwell is the only Washingtonian to receive a diploma at this time. The other diplomas signed by the president of the association were sent to graduates in Iowa, Illinois, Massachusetts, Minnesota, and Nebraska.

Mr. Barrett will sign every Esperanto diploma awarded in the United States while he is president.

BOSTON, Jan. 14.—The Boston Elevated Railway Company tonight announced an increase in wages, amounting to $100,000 a year, to go into effect immediately. The advance was not requested by the employees. It is the third voluntary increase in seven years.

VAN DYKE MADE FELLOW.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 14.—Prof. Henry Van Dyke received word today that he had been unanimously elected an honorary fellow of the Royal Society of Literature of the United Kingdom, an honor heretofore conferred upon only one other living American, Joseph H. Choate, formerly ambassador to the court of St. James.

HEROISM REPAID.
NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Orizius Jude and John J. McGlynn, two bridge workers, have received $20,000 damages to injuries received two years ago while employed in building the Queensborough bridge. In order to prevent a steel plate falling and crushing the workmen below, these two men held it in place by thrusting their hands into a crevice beneath the plate, thus mutilating their hands so that they have been unable to work since.

TURKEY SUES CHICKEN.
PITTSBURG, Jan. 14.—"My name is Mike, Turkey, and I want to sue Chicken," said a man as he rushed into Magistrate W. D. Mansfield's court, in McKeesport, last night. "Who's Chicken?" asked Mansfield. "Why Joe Chicken. He boards with me, and when I was in my chicken coop trying a fighting bird he smashed in the door because I would not let him in." The magistrate settled the case by ordering Chicken to pay the costs.
